RELEASE CONSENT FORM
Abundant Life Baptist Church, Lee's Summit, MO

ALBC staff may take photographs, videos, and/or audio clips of groups or individuals engaged in various activities on and off the premises of ALBC. These media items may be used to promote or advertise ALBC's programs in media presentations during church services or activities, in church publications, including internet web sites, social networking sites; in press releases, and in other promotional or marketing media.

Participants in ALBC activities understand and agree that any such media items taken, produced or obtained by ALBC for these purposes are the sole property of ALBC, which has the absolute and exclusive right to copyright, use, reuse, publish and republish photographic portraits, pictures, video images, and audio clips of any participant, without further consent from or compensation to a participant.

CONSENT and WAIVER: By signing below, you agree that you are the parent or legal guardian of the below named student who attends activities and services at ALBC, that you hereby acknowledge and consent to the above policy, and that on behalf of yourself and the student you waive any claim of right to control, use or receive compensation for such media items.

NON-CONSENT. I do not consent to the above policy, and / or I request that the below named student generally should not be included in such media items taken or obtained by ALBC for the above described purposes, unless I give my specific consent for a particular use in the future.

I sign this form freely and without coercion.
